

For someone who travels for a living and use the various interstates for commerce, I find XM Satellite radio to be the best thing for accurate traffic and weather information. I do not have to search the radio stations in a city where I am not familiar trying to get around the traffic jams. It makes for a safer driving experience.